POLICY OF SOLIDARITY & SOCIAL INTEGRATION

WAKO Europe strongly encourages all national federations to work strategically to use the power of kickboxing as an effective tool to:

- Fight against discrimination of any and all kinds
- Integrate in sport and support marginal groups of people such as people with disabilities, refugees, minor groups, etc. Work towards integration in general.
- Integrate and ease the poverty
- Adapt Kickboxing programs to exposed groups
- Focus on solidarity and charity, act through various campaigns
- Create positive social interaction
- Create positive competitive interaction
- Create an awareness of the positive aspects of social, political and religious differences, promote it in media

Kickboxing with its variety of disciplines and training methods is an effective social tool for:

- Training and recreation
- Mental satisfaction
- Creating discipline
- Understanding respect
- Raising awareness
- Understanding friendship
- Understanding differences
- Creating awareness and can be used in various programs made together with government, schools, and all kind of special social programs.

WAKO Europe will establish and correlate and support various projects inside the organization and that exists nationally.

Taking care of solidarity or charity is also effective, in order to create acceptance, understanding and build on reputation of the organization.
